

~ Call for Papers ~

Research Symposium

“The African Diaspora from an Afrocentric Perspective”

sponsored by

Clafin University

and

National Association of African American Studies & Affiliates

November 9-13, 2014

The research symposium will involve local, regional, national and international themes, concepts, theories and methodological approaches used in the study of the Diaspora. Abstracts are welcomed that address, but are not limited to: pedagogical approaches of the disciplines, music and art, science and medicine, gender and sexuality, economics and economic systems, the Griot Tradition, literature and languages, the virtual Diaspora, global Blackness and politics. Papers in languages other than English (Spanish, Portuguese, French, Swahili, Creole and Dutch) and from countries other than the United States are particularly encouraged.

Abstracts, not to exceed two hundred words, should be submitted with title of paper, presenter's name, home and institution/organization postal address and e-mail should be postmarked by: August 31, 2014.

SEND ABSTRACTS TO:

Dr. Lemuel Berry, Jr., Executive Director

NAAAS & Affiliates

PO Box 6670

Scarborough, ME 04070-6670

T: 207/839-8004 - F: 207/839-3776

E: naaasconference@earthlink.net

www.NAAAS.org